Every year the Editor-in-Chief describes working on the yearbook as a tedious, time consuming job with unbelievable pressures. Yes, we did spend a lot of time working on this book, but the people who made this book as good as we believe it to be, were the greatest people I've had the pleasure of working with. We enjoyed being together and the job was finished so quickly. We wish to thank Mr. Go-Go, Mr. Bennett, and our photographer Pat Conolly for all their advice, patience and help, and I wish to thank all the other editors and members of the Yearbook Staff for doing a good job in a great way.

RALPH H. BINNS III

Educator...Parent....Advisor
Craftsman...Administrator...Friend

A person is many things to many people. But Mr. Binns was a special person to so many of us, and the above just begins to describe why this was so. For his years of devoted service, and in fond remembrance, the Class of 1975 appreciatively dedicates this yearbook.

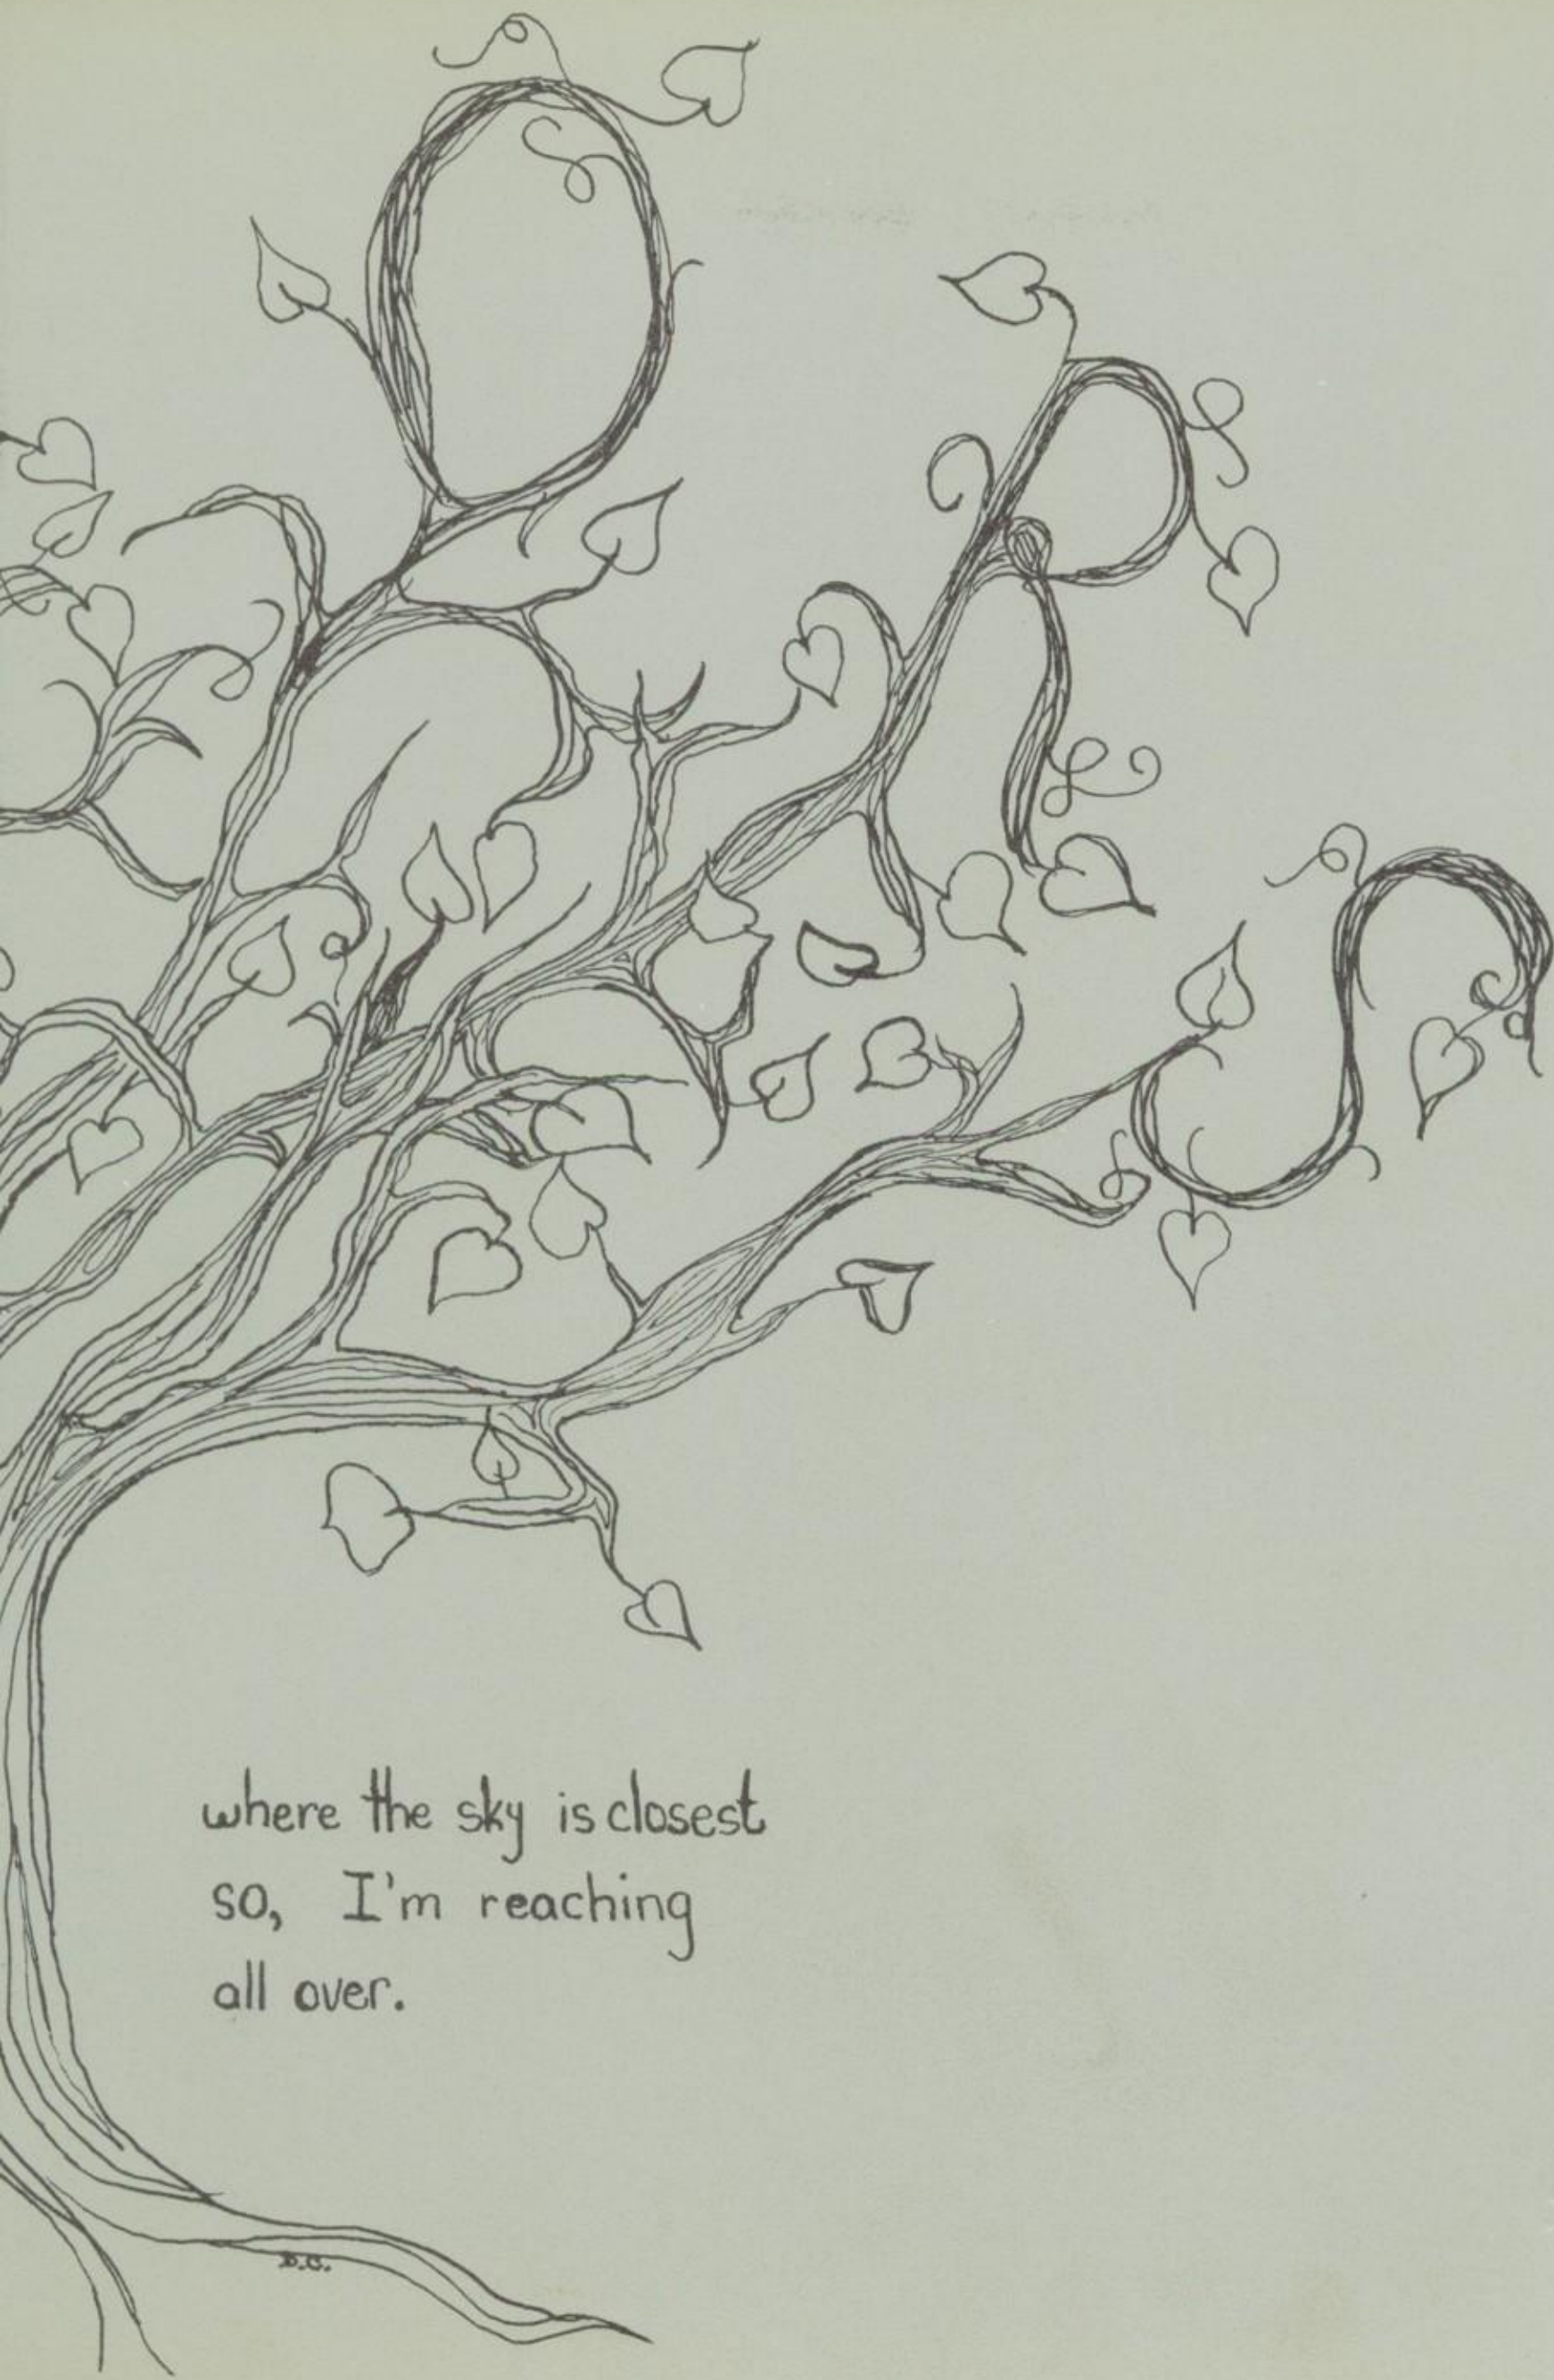

'And thou in this shalt find thy monument,
When tyrants' crests and tombs of brass are spent.
Shakespeare

I am a tree
reaching for the sky,
and can't decide

where the sky is closest so, I'm reaching all over.

VOCATIONAL

SENIORS

There is a saying among soldiers:
I dare not make the first move but would rather play the guest;
I dare not advance an inch but would rather withdraw a foot.

This is called marching without appearing to move,
Rolling up your sleeves without showing your arm,
Capturing the enemy without attacking,
Being armed without weapons.

There is no greater catastrophe than underestimating the enemy.
By underestimating the enemy, I almost lose what I value.

Therefore when the battle is joined,
The underdog will win.

two butterflies flitting in the sun.
they're so fragile...
they're so beautiful I hope they're having fun.

but butterflies are like people that really live.
nice, but too fragile-

If only you knew how things are.
How can you sit there and judge us,
When you know nothing of how we are?
You know what you see, but cannot comprehend,
So you create an untruth and to you,
It becomes a truth.
We are honest and sincere,
But are made out as liars and sneaks.
What more can we do, but be what we are,
And have what we have?
A holy Lord has blessed us greatly,
But you cannot understand that.
Oh, how we wish you could.
Not for our own being, but for yours.
Our hearts ache for your blindness.
Maybe one day, some of you here will see.
We pray for a miracle for you,
Because we know He hears us.

THE ART OF LEARNING

The chief art of learning, is to attempt but a little at a time. The widest excursions of the mind are made by short flights, frequently repeated, the most lofty fabrics of science are formed by the continued accumulation of single propositions.

What Makes a Man?
The longer I live the more certain I am that the great difference between men, the great and the insignificant, is energy-invincible determination-an honest purpose once fixed-and then the victory. That quality will do any thing that can be done in the world; and no talents, no circumstances, no opportunity will make a two-legged creature without it.

Albert F. Argenziano, Principal

A WORD FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Little time lies ahead if we are to turn man toward man. And as painfully small as our efforts are, all who are concerned must pit their efforts against those forces that would tend to separate us. Each of us in our own way must avoid the paths that in the past have offered the seductive semblance of safety. Now the directions and the programs must be created to meet the challenge, for there is no alternative.

I can only hope that you turn the pages of the Silver Lake Torch so that you can begin to unfold the mysteries and uncertainties that beset you, the student, and perhaps more importantly, so that you can have lasting memories of your school, faculty and friends.

I thank you.
